

GAN Tin Hua Michael

Associate Professor of Accounting
FCA., 1978; ACA., 1967, (E&W); ATII, 1967, (London)

Associate Professor Gan Tin Hua was a member of the planning team at SMU, tasked with the responsibility of space programming of the University campuses.

Associate Professor Gan is a Chartered Accountant. Before joining academia, he had worked in the international accounting firm of Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co in London for a number of years. His working experience included auditing, taxation, insurance and construction accounting and estate management. His academic career spanned over 30 years, beginning with the University of Singapore in 1969, NUS in 1981, NTU in 1988 and SMU in 1999. He had taught both undergraduate and graduate courses in financial accounting, auditing, information system and income tax.

Publications

Journal Articles (Selected)

Gan Tin Hua et al: A Disclosure Model: Accounting for Reserves in Singapore, Securities Industries Review, October 1985

Gan Tin Hua et al: Accounting for Tax, a Singapore Perspective, The International Accountants, London, September 1986,

Gan Tin Hua et al: Disclosure Standards and Practices of Singapore Incorporated Companies, September 1989, Toppan

Chapters in Books

Khoo Teng Aun, Tan Clement, Chew Kah Kee, Gan Tin Hua & Siu Ella, Pinetree Engineering Pte Ltd - An Accounting Practice Set 1997, (176 pgs), Revised Edition Prentice Hall